The Culinary Historians of Ann Arbor (CHAA), founded in 1983 by Jan Longone and friends, is a group of scholars, cooks, food writers, nutritionists, collectors, students, and others interested in the study of culinary history and gastronomy. Unless otherwise announced, meetings take place on the third Sunday of the month from 4:00-6:00pm, September through May, at the Ann Arbor Senior Center, 1320 Baldwin Ave. Information about the season's program is available at the CHAA website: <http://culinaryhistoriansannarbor.org>

Membership in CHAA is open to anyone interested in culinary history. CHAA dues are $20.00 for a single membership and $25.00 for a family membership. A subscription to the newsletter, Repast, is included with membership. If you would like to receive Repast, but cannot attend meetings, a year's subscription is $15.00. You may use the form below to join CHAA or to order the newsletter.

The CHAA Newsletter - *Repast

Repast is the official publication of the Culinary Historians of Ann Arbor. It is published four times a year. In addition to announcements of future meetings and reports of past meetings for the group, Repast also contains feature articles, book reviews, a calendar of upcoming events of culinary interest, and special events.

We are pleased to receive contributions to the newsletter from members and subscribers, although we regret we cannot pay for articles. If you would like to contribute articles or other regular features, place information in the calendar, or comment on the newsletter, contact the newsletter editor:
