

CULINARY HISTORIANS OF ANN ARBOR

Winter Participatory Meal

Along the Blue Danube

SUNDAY, December 10, 2017 – 4:00 TO 7:00 PM

Ladies' Literary Club of Ypsilanti
218 North Washington Street
Ypsilanti, Michigan 48197

Let's take a tour down the Blue Danube. Its banks are lined with castles and fortresses, once forming the boundary between great empires, and its waters served as a vital commercial highway between nations. The river's majesty has long been celebrated in music. The famous waltz "An der schönen, blauen Donau" (1867; The Blue Danube), by Johann Strauss the Younger, became the symbol of imperial Vienna. In the 21st century the river has continued its role as an important trade artery. Countries along the Danube are: Germany, Austria, Slovakia, Hungary, Croatia, Serbia, Bulgaria, Romania, Moldova, Ukraine.

Directions to the Ladies' Literary Club
218 N Washington St
Ypsilanti, MI 48197

From I-94:

1. Take Exit 183 for Huron Street. Turn North toward Ypsilanti on Huron Street.
2. Drive about 1 mile on Huron Street. Turn left onto Pearl Street (the first left after crossing Michigan Avenue)
3. Take the first right onto N. Washington Street. The Ladies' Literary Club is on the right, at the SE corner of the second intersection.

From Washtenaw Avenue and US-23:

1. Go east on Washtenaw Avenue about 4 miles, to the Ypsilanti Water Tower.
4. Continue three blocks on Washtenaw Avenue. There is a stop sign at Hamilton Street (where M-17 south toward Michigan Avenue); continue STRAIGHT on Washtenaw, which becomes a two-way street. Take the second left, onto N. Washington Street. The Ladies' Literary Club is on the right, at the SE corner of the first intersection.

Parking: There are about 15 spaces adjoining the Ladies' Literary Club. Turn right onto Emmet Street. Park either on Emmet Street, or continue on and turn right into the parking lot behind the Club. There are also spaces available at the First Presbyterian Church Parking Lot (the Presbyterian Church is just across Emmet Street from the LLC; the parking lot is just north of the church off Washington Street).
