

CULINARY HISTORIANS OF ANN ARBOR

Winter Participatory Meal

Exotic Seaports

SUNDAY, December 9, 2018 – 4:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Ladies' Literary Club of Ypsilanti
218 North Washington Street
Ypsilanti, Michigan 48197

Imagine an ocean voyage to an exotic seaport. What culinary adventures would you encounter there? Now bring one of those dishes to our winter participatory meal. If you can't find a dish specific to a seaport, then find one from the country, state or province the seaport is located in. If you can't think of one, here's a list to choose from.

Directions to the Ladies' Literary Club
218 N Washington St
Ypsilanti, MI 48197

From I-94:

1. Take Exit 183 for Huron Street. Turn North toward Ypsilanti on Huron Street.
2. Drive about 1 mile on Huron Street. Turn left onto Pearl Street (the first left after crossing Michigan Avenue)
3. Take the first right onto N. Washington Street. The Ladies' Literary Club is on the right, at the SE corner of the second intersection.

From Washtenaw Avenue and US-23:

1. Go east on Washtenaw Avenue about 4 miles, to the Ypsilanti Water Tower.
4. Continue three blocks on Washtenaw Avenue. There is a stop sign at Hamilton Street (where M-17 south toward Michigan Avenue); continue STRAIGHT on Washtenaw, which becomes a two-way street. Take the second left, onto N. Washington Street. The Ladies' Literary Club is on the right, at the SE corner of the first intersection.

Parking: There are about 15 spaces adjoining the Ladies' Literary Club. Turn right onto Emmet Street. Park either on Emmet Street, or continue on and turn right into the parking lot behind the Club. There are also spaces available at the First Presbyterian Church Parking Lot (the Presbyterian Church is just across Emmet Street from the LLC; the parking lot is just north of the church off Washington Street).
